

South African Rooibos (Loose Leaf)

Description:

South African Rooibos (Loose Leaf) is a red tea that is harvested from high-grown shrubs in the Cape Province of South Africa. The herb is naturally caffeine-free, and is thought to have an abundance of antioxidants and minerals. Rooibos is also considered the "sister" to honeybush.

Davidson's South African Rooibos (Loose Leaf) is a robust, earthy brew with sweet top notes.

Davidson's sources its organic rooibos from South Africa. During a recent trip to visit our rooibos farmer, Davidson's co-owner, Kunall Patel, had the opportunity to experience each phase in the rooibos production process. Here he is assisting the small farmers in packing the rooibos in sacks.
