

Cargo Net Manual

FOR LOAD FLOOR AND OR CARGO BED (INTERIOR OR EXTERNAL USE)

Limitations

Cargo Net Working Load Limit is 400 lbs of evenly distributed contained weight with a minimum of 4 connection points. Do not over tighten; this may cause damage to net, rope, cinch, cargo and anchor points. Though cargo net can be used almost anywhere, it is your responsibility to determine suitability of this product for any particular use. This product is only as strong as stated when what you anchor them to is as equally strong. Cargo net is subject to damage by elements of weather and may void the warranty. Cargo Net should be regularly inspected and replaced if worn or damaged. Continuous exposure to ultra-violet light, extreme cold or extreme heat can degrade the strength. Storage of net should be in a dry place not susceptible to elements of weather. Do not exceed "Working Load Limit". Always keep in mind that "Dynamic G-Forces" will compromise weight limits such as quickly reducing the speed at which the cargo is traveling and wind resistance. "Working Load Limit" is the maximum load a component or assembly should be subjected to during routine use. All ratings are based on the product being new and with usage in average environmental conditions. For any particular use, check with applicable industry, trade association, federal, state and/or local regulations. Always read and follow all installation and usage instructions carefully. Do not expose to sharp edges, acids, chemicals or items that may cause damage. Products are subject to age, wear and deterioration which can cause a reduction in the products working load limit. When traveling, we recommend periodically checking cargo and net to insure they are safely secure. If secured cargo has sharp edges or is subject to omitting heat or chemicals it may cause failure of net. If there are any further questions contact your local Snap-Loc dealer or one of our customer service representatives.
