Notes & Details

Give your operation a delicious boost by offering custom meals with this 45-piece Avantco induction made-to-order omelet / pasta station! The kit includes 45 hand-selected pieces to help accommodate your business in its new venture and menu offerings. An easy-to-use double countertop induction range is the main component, designed for quick, but quality cooking. Because it's induction, the unit cooks with flameless technology, making your station just that much cooler and safer. Plus, the 16 gauge 304 type stainless steel base features a cavity built to accommodate the range, providing you with a durable and professional cooking station. Whatever types of omelets, pastas, stir fries, or other dishes you make, this kit is sure to give you a boost start in offering made-to-order meal options on your new and expanded menu!

A number of supplies are featured in the kit with the purpose of cold food storage, perfect for peppers, onions, deli ham, and a number of other common ingredients. These supplies include (1) 1/3 size and (6) 1/6 size, 6" deep stainless steel steam table pans for storage and (36) 15 oz. foam freeze packs to set beneath each food pan. The pans settle into the base, supported by its enclosed design.
