Notes & Details

Offer delicious and fresh pancakes with this Avantco deluxe induction made-to-order pancake station. This kit includes 54 pieces to help you make your own pancake-creating station. Whether you make hearty pancakes with apples and cinnamon or opt for the classic chocolate chip, this station is designed to give you an elegant, professional, and organized presentation. This countertop range uses induction technology to generate heat with no open flame. This means less ambient heat in your kitchen, fast heat-up times, and most importantly no open flame or flammable fuels that could be a potential safety hazard. This kit includes everything you need to get started right away and takes the hassle out of starting your made-to-order station!

A stainless steel base houses all the components of this kit. It includes (1) 1/3 size and (6) 1/6 size stainless steel steam table pans for keeping ingredients on hand. Plus, (36) 15 oz. foam freeze packs are included to set beneath each food pan and keep ingredients at the proper temperature. The pans settle into the base, supported by its enclosed design. Ingredient spoons make it easy to scoop your patrons' favorite mix-ins while the ladles make it easy to scoop batter and fruit sauces.

This kit includes an induction cooktop with a 11" x 23" griddle. The griddle is perfectly flat and makes it easy to make perfect, uniform pancakes. The included turner makes it easy to flip each pancake when it has been cooked to perfection. Just grab your ingredients and get started - this pancake kit has all the components you need to begin cooking delicious, made-to-order pancakes!
