Notes & Details

The Backyard Pro grill cooking grate is ideal as either a direct replacement or a spare for your Backyard Pro outdoor liquid propane grill. Made of durable stainless steel, this grate will resist rust and is much easier to clean than other material options for cooking grates. Also, stainless steel naturally heats up much quicker, allowing for searing of meat without significant preheating time. Two grates are needed for 30" wide Backyard Pro liquid propane grills while 60" grills require 4 grates.
