These riser sets have unique framed designs to give your foods a more minimalistic stage. They're absolutely guaranteed to catch the eyes of guests on the buffet line or display case, but even more than that, they're guaranteed to ensure that the true star of the show is your delectable bites.

Set the stage for your culinary creations with this 3-piece hammered stainless steel rectangular riser set. With a small, medium and large riser included, you can produce an eye-catching, layered display for your most popular menu items. Slightly larger in size, this set is perfect for showcasing a variety of menu choices for any restaurant, buffet, or catered event. When not in use, they will nest for efficient, space-saving storage. Because of its versatile color, these risers can be paired with virtually any of our trays or serving boards, or simply place the food directly on the risers. Add a fresh twist to your buffet presentation!
