Notes & Details

If you need to move or store large numbers of sheet pans in your commercial kitchen, this Regency end load bun pan rack is the way to go! It holds up to 18 full-size sheet pans and is made of 18-gauge aluminum for lasting durability. This sheet pan rack has rail-type ledges to support the pans, spaced 3" apart. When you need to move sheet pans from storage to the kitchen or across the building to a serving area, you can count on this bun pan rack! It comes with (4) 5" polyurethane casters to make transportation a breeze. This unit ships assembled.
