Notes & Details

Safely and securely hold your CPG countertop equipment with this Regency 36" stainless steel open cabinet equipment base. It's specially designed for use with 36" wide CPG countertop units, such as charbroilers, hot plates, and griddles, providing an easy way to install your compatible unit in your kitchen or food prep area. Plus, built for optimal durability and ease of use, the unit conveniently features an open design for maximum access to the storage space below, which is perfect for storing pans and utensils for upcoming cooking tasks.

The base's 16-gauge stainless steel ensures not only a sleek, attractive appearance, but great longevity in even the toughest kitchen environments. Both its welded design and its 6" legs make cleaning in and around the unit easy.
