This three-tiered stand rises to the occasion of weddings, banquets and other events with delectably bite-sized desserts, hors d'oeuvres and small plates. Its multi-level design draws your guests' eyes upward and puts your creations within easy reach. Best of all, it's built to last with durable stainless steel construction and a sturdy base for sitting atop tables and counters. It features a knock-down design making it easy to transport and store for catered events. And because each stand is individually hammered for a contemporary textured appearance, your guests won't be able to resist going back for seconds (or thirds!). Take your buffets to the next level in more ways than one with the Ascent3.

At 5-1/2″ L x 6-5/8″ W this two-tier shiny stainless steel display stand lets you show off tempting desserts, appetizers, and fruit, bringing drama and practicality to your next event, buffet line or high-tea table service. Stable, durable, and pretty: You won't know how you brunched without it. Easily sanitizes by hand.
