WebstaurantStore, LLC to Establish Distribution Operations in Tennessee

Lancaster, PA – WebstaurantStore, LLC is opening a new distribution facility in Lebanon, Tennessee.

The facility will create 225 new jobs in Wilson County and utilize automated packaging machines to target increased demand for restaurant, industrial, and other office supplies and equipment.

This expansion allows WebstaurantStore to ship to customers primarily in the Midwest region of the United States, with the capability of shipping orders throughout the entire US and internationally.

The opening of this new distribution facility is another step in WebstaurantStore’s commitment to providing the highest quality products and services to its customers. With the addition of this new center, WebstaurantStore is now better positioned to meet the ever-increasing demand for its products and services. The new facility will help WebstaurantStore continue to grow and expand to new markets and customers.

“We are excited to continue the expansion of our distribution network with our newest facility in the state of Tennessee. Our facility, located in Lebanon, will be our largest investment in automation and infrastructure in the company’s history. The labor pool and skilled logistics workforce of the greater Lebanon, Tennessee area made our decision easy when selecting our next site for distribution. We look forward to continued growth and positively impacting the community, as well as the State of Tennessee, for many years to come.” – Caleb Clugston, Vice President of Network Optimization, WebstaurantStore, LLC

The new center will be using a Sparck Technologies CVP Automated Packaging machine, which is fit-to-size packaging technology that will size, construct, and label each custom order. This will create the perfect package and eliminate the need for void fill materials.

Hiring for the plant is expected to begin later this year and will continue into 2024. Those interested can apply here. Once the team is assembled, opportunities will begin to support the local community through volunteer efforts and contributions.
